THE DAILY BULLETIN.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 7, 1892.

Ka Leo publishes its obituary in advance this morning. This is a ghastly privilege often exercised by cranks.

The Advertiser has resurrected the late King and placed him in San Francisco on the 22d of last December. If it could resurrect the Kalakaua Monument Association with equal facility, a great imposition on the public might be redressed.

Rep. W. O. Smith stated Monday in the House that he "would rather have the Police Department crippled than go on as it had." In other words since he is not to have the control of it as Attorney-General, he doesn't care how little protection will be given to the life and property of the capital's 22,000 inhabitants.

A change has come over the spirit of their dreams. Reps. Ashford and Wilcox in strong speeches Monday advocated increases in the amount proposed to be appropriated for the Police of Oahu on the grounds that the low sum asked for would necessitate reductions which would make the force inefficient, and also render the men kept on liable to succumb to corrupt temptations. These are sound and sensible views and we congratulate the honorable members on having sunk their personal grievances and advocated what they thought to be for the good of the community.

"Administration in Hawaii has faults enough, but it is clean and honest in comparison with much that is found elsewhere." So says the Advertiser editorially this morning. Occasionally that journal lapses into printing the truth, but it generally does so, as in this case, with a sneer or a slur at the same time. It must have cost the gang a mighty effort to admit that the administration of government here is clean and honest at all, no matter whether compared with other countries or not. We trust that, having made the first step, our neighbor will continue in the path of rectitude and leave off its course of slinging lies editorially and reportorially to gratify personal or political ends.

JONA. AUSTIN DEAD.

An Honored Soldier of the United States.

A Useful Citizen and Public Man of Hawaii.

This morning the sad and unexpected news of the death of Jonathan Austin was circulated. Mr. Austin died at 7:30 o'clock this morning, after a lingering illness of eight weeks. Fears of a fatal result which were harbored a week or two ago were nearly dispelled latterly, as the patient had shown signs of improving and it was intimated he expected soon to be at his office again. He had removed to Waikiki for the benefit of the more bracing ocean atmosphere there, but death from a general failure of the vital powers it seems could not be averted.

The lamented gentleman was just a month over 63 years of age, having been born at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Nov. 7th, 1829. He was married to Nancy L. Guenther of Buffalo, N. Y., in 1854, and came here, accompanied by his wife, in 1877. He fought on the Union side in the war of secession, distinguishing himself by heroic deeds and bravery. In the last battle he fought so well and hard that he tired himself out, and was taken from the field on a stretcher to his home in Frederick City. At that time he was in command of a brigade. He left the army with the commission of Lieutenant-Colonel of the seventy-eighth New York. Col. Austin was a devoted member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and those who have attended the camp fires of Gen. W. de Long Post, here, will ever remember his relation, in his turn, of stirring incidents of the camp and field. At the last one, held at Mr. J. N. Wright's place, he told in graphic language the story of the greatest act of heroism he had witnessed in the whole war. The Colonel wore the G. A. R. button, saying he desired to wear no other. He was, however, high in Masonry, being a member of Hiram Lodge, No. 105, F. & A. M., Buffalo, N. Y., also a Knight Templar and a Royal Arch Mason.

The late Mr. Austin lived in Hilo some time before coming to sojourn permanently in Honolulu. He was admitted to the Hawaiian bar on examination, September 2, 1884. In New York he stood eminent as a patent lawyer, and at his death was Commissioner of Patents for this kingdom. After the Reform revolution of 1887, in which Col. Austin had taken an active part, he accepted with full public confidence the important office of Registrar of Conveyances. This office he resigned to become Minister of Foreign Affairs on December 28, 1887, instead of Godfrey Brown, resigned. He remained in the Reform Ministry until his resignation on June 17, 1890. Upon retiring from public life he opened a law office again, but of late has been manager and treasurer of the Hawaiian Electrical Works, in which he has been assisted by his son-in-law, Mr. E. Oscar White. He seemed to find electric science very congenial, and when taken down by his last illness, was deeply engrossed in projects for the expansion of the company's business.

Mrs. Austin preceded her husband to the grave in this city four years ago. His brother, Benjamin Hale Austin, was a Justice of the Supreme Court from November 7, 1881, till his death, July 5, 1885. Col. Austin leaves two daughters—Miss Millie Austin and Mrs. White—a brother, Circuit Justice S. L. Austin of Hilo, and a sister, Mrs. G. W. Townsend of Buffalo, N. Y., to mourn his loss. The Colonel was an adherent of Central Union Church, whose services he attended regularly when in health. He was a man of placid and suave disposition, with whom to have business or social relations was a pleasure.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from the residence, Waikiki. An extra car will leave Fort street at 10 minutes to 2.

Flags at the Government building, on public offices, foreign legations and consulates, the U. S. S. Boston and the departing Oceanic S. S. Australia were placed at halfmast out of respect to the distinguished gentleman's memory.

Suit on a Raffle.

Mary Keomakani has recovered a refrigerator valued at $100 from Annie Reist in the Police Court. The article was among other household effects disposed of by Mrs. Reist at a raffle. It was drawn by the owner herself on a ticket taken by a young man but not paid for. After the drawing Mary Keomakani offered a dollar, the price of a ticket, to Mrs. Reist, saying it was for a chance. Next day she sent an express for the refrigerator, claiming it to have fallen to her chance. Mrs. Reist refused to deliver the article, hence the suit. S. K. Kane appeared for the plaintiff, and J. A. Magoon for the defendant.

Mr. J. C. Boswell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy was used; that relieved him at once. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

OUR HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Address of Mr. Jos. S. Emerson, V. P., at the Annual Meeting, Dec. 5, 1892.

The Hawaiian Historical Society organized on the 11th of January of the present year meets to-night, not to celebrate its first anniversary, but to hold its first annual meeting. In the absence of our President, it devolves upon me to welcome the members and friends of the society, and to offer a few remarks suitable to the occasion. The object of this society, as expressed in its Constitution, is "the collection, study, and utilization of all material illustrating the Ethnology, Archaeology and History of the Hawaiian Islands." We are therefore not committed to any political faith, or ecclesiastical creed, or the advancement of any one of the several nationalities which together form the Hawaiian Kingdom. We now seek, and shall continue to seek, exact historic truth, and shall cordially welcome it from whatever source it may reach us. The field before us is extremely rich. The ethnology and archaeology of this country are engaging the earnest study of scholars in other lands, and they rightly claim the patient consideration of our own antiquarian students. The strictly historical period of our country is somewhat more limited than the ethnological and archaeological, but it is equally important. The valuable history of the Hawaiian People by our Corresponding Secretary, Prof. W. D. Alexander, recently published, is awakening a new interest in this department of study, which is being further stimulated by the efforts of our Historical Society, and the moral and practical support which it is receiving throughout our country. There are chapters of our national history which will compare favorably with many of those which have been written of other countries, and it is the desire of this Society to gather up the threads of our history which otherwise may be permanently lost, in order that hereafter they may be woven, by the future historian, into a lasting and symmetrical whole.

The original twenty-one members of this Society, given in alphabetical order, are as follows:

Prof. W. D. Alexander, Dr. G. P. Andrews, Hon. C. R. Bishop, B. F. Dillingham, Hon. S. B. Dole, J. S. Emerson, Dr. N. B. Emerson, Rev. O. P. Emerson, W. F. Frear, Chaplain R. R. Hoes, U. S. N., Rev. Dr. C. M. Hyde, Dr. A. B. Lyons, C. J. Lyons, Rev. A. Mackintosh, Dr. A. E. Nichols, Rev. Jiro Okabe, W. C. Parke, Dr. C. T. Rodgers, Prof. M. M. Scott, F. J. Testa, T. G. Thurman.

We have since elected 215 active members, making our total active membership 237, and adding to this list our 215 corresponding members, we have a grand total membership of 257. Were it not for the stringency of the times the number of our members would be much greater, but even as the list now stands we have in it ample cause for congratulation, indicating as it does the degree of sympathy and moral support that has been extended to the Society in the accomplishment of its desirable purposes.

Our Constitution, embracing seven articles, was adopted on the 11th of January, 1892. Since then three laws have been adopted which will be read by our Recording Secretary in his report this evening.

The officers of the Society since its organization have been as follows: President, C. R. Bishop; Vice-President, J. S. Emerson; Corresponding Secretary, Prof. W. D. Alexander; Recording Secretary, Rev. Dr. C. M. Hyde; Librarian, Rev. R. R. Hoes, U. S. N., and Treasurer, T. G. Thurman.

The most important event in our history since our organization is the arrangement and agreement which has been made by the Society and the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association, to ensure the holding in perpetuity for public use of the material presented to this Society. After mature deliberation, this committee formulated five propositions to the Trustees of the Honolulu Library. These trustees, after careful debate, on the motion of Henry Waterhouse, Esq., unanimously accepted these propositions, and at a meeting of the Historical Society held on the 7th of April, Judge Dole, Chairman of the Special Committee, reported the basis of co-operation agree upon with the Honolulu Library Association, which was unanimously adopted by the Historical Society. These proposals read as follows:

1. That the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association should grant to the Hawaiian Historical Society the permanent use and control of the front room of the Library building.

2. That the said Association should transfer to the said Society all printed and manuscript matter in its possession relating in whole or in part to Polynesia and the Pacific Ocean in general, and the Hawaiian Islands in particular.

3. That the members of the Hawaiian Library and Reading Room Association may consult the books belonging to the said Historical Society, subject to the same rules that now regulate the use of the reference department of the said Library Association, and such others as may be made in relation thereto by the Hawaiian Historical Society.

4. That the Hawaiian Historical Society shall not call upon the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association as such for any financial aid in building up its Hawaiian and Polynesian Library.

5. That in the possible event of the dissolution of the Hawaiian Historical Society, its whole library shall, ipso facto, become the property of the Honolulu Library and Reading Room Association.

Reference will be made in the report of the Corresponding Secretary to the series of "Papers of the Hawaiian Historical Society," two of which have already been published in pamphlet form.

The Corresponding Secretary will call our attention to interesting letters received from abroad in which our Society is referred to in complimentary terms.

The Treasurer's Report shows a balance in his hands of $347.40. This would be larger, but for the fact that a few of our members have not yet paid their entrance fees and annual dues, and the long list of members elected at our last meeting have not as yet received their bills.

The Librarian's Report speaks for itself, and we may congratulate ourselves on having secured a man who brings to his task the zeal of an enthusiast and the skill of an expert, and who for the love of the work still continues his invaluable services as our librarian. Were it not for the calamity referred to in the Librarian's Report, our brief experience as a society would have been one of continuous prosperity. The damage done to our Library by water, in the event referred to, has never been fully repaired, and we still await the liberality of some as yet unknown benefactor who shall earn for himself the lasting gratitude of the Society by assisting us in our time of greatest need.

Hawaiian Hardware Contest.

A suggestion has been made to the Editor of the BULLETIN regarding the manner of judging the merits of the various menus submitted in the Hawaiian Hardware Contest. To prevent partiality being shown by the judges, it is suggested that competitors sign their menus with a nom de plume or some peculiar mark, enclosing their card bearing the same mark in a separate envelope. While this may be a good plan it is the intention of the person having charge of the contest to cut the person's name from the menu and substitute a number. The name will be placed in a sealed envelope which will be marked on the outside by a number corresponding with the one on the menu. The judges will have no means of knowing the names of the persons competing and will award the prize from the number only.

KING BROS.

"August Flower"

Perhaps you do not believe these statements concerning Green's August Flower. Well, we can't make you. We can't force conviction into your head or medicine into your throat. We don't want to. The money is yours, and the misery is yours; and until you are willing to believe, and spend the one for the relief of the other, they will stay so. John H. Foster, 1122 Brown Street, Philadelphia, says: "My wife is a little Scotch woman, thirty years of age and of a naturally delicate disposition. For five or six years past she has been suffering from Dyspepsia. She became so bad at last that she could not sit down to a meal but she had to vomit it as soon as she had eaten it. Two bottles of your August Flower cured her, after many doctors failed. She can now eat anything, and enjoy it; and as for Dyspepsia, she does not know that she ever had it."

Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd

Saturday, Dec. 3, 1892.

With a view to ascertaining the gastronomic capabilities of the Honolulu housekeeper, we will give to the amateur submitting the best Menu for a Christmas Dinner for five persons, the sum of $10; to the professional (which includes person who furnished meals as a business) the sum of $5.

The conditions of the contest are as follows:

Contestants must be subscribers to the Bulletin.

Menus are to be original and not copied from any of the forms supplied by authors of cook books.

The dishes are to be those only to be found in the markets or stores of Honolulu.

The cost of each dish or course to be stated as well as the total cost of the meal. The total cost not to exceed $10.

Contestants to sign their full name to the Menu submitted, enclose their effort in an envelope marked "Hawaiian Hardware Co. Contest, care Daily Bulletin, Honolulu."

The envelopes will be opened in the Bulletin Office on the 15th inst., and the prizes awarded next day. The winning Menu will be published in this paper on the 21st inst.

The Editor of the Bulletin will select two judges from among the governors of the Kingdom, and these gentlemen will name a third. If you want an extra ten-dollar piece for Christmas now is your chance to get it.

A year ago not only the tastes but the purses of the people leaned toward massive chandeliers with brass founts—elaborate and expensive. At this time, with the "crash in sugar," or not, according to the opinions of different correspondents, the purses show a tendency to enjoy closer relations with something less expensive.

Our stock of chandeliers is admirably adapted to the wants of the rich whose exchequers have experienced no change, or to those people whose circumstances warrant retrenchment. But everybody wants the maximum light at the minimum price. We appreciate the situation and beginning with Monday, December 5th, we will offer you an opportunity to get a two, three or four light chandelier complete with chimneys, globes, etc., at very reduced prices. They are perfect in every particular, neither store-worn or broken; but they have glass instead of brass founts and we want to sell them. Times are going to be better and we want additional room for our stock of all-brass chandeliers. Just now the ceiling of our store room looks like an inverted forest and we want room—floor room and ceiling room—and we are willing to sacrifice twenty-five percent on the price of these goods to get it. A four-light fellow that you would have jumped at a year ago for $28 we will sell you this week for $21. Another one with twisted brass shank and arms, colored globes, imperial burners, goes to you at $15—it was cheap at $20, six months ago and it's just as good as the other only it has three instead of four lights, quite enough for a small room because there's not so much heat in it. A two-light chandelier in brass, well suited for a dining room will be sold at $13.50, another just as good for $12. Colored globes and A1 burners with each of them.

These goods have not been marked up to suit this occasion as you can see the selling tags that have been on them for the past six months—slice off 25 percent and you have the price you can buy them for this week only. If you want light this is the opportunity of a life time to get it. The patterns are as modern as the price.

Talk about Schultze cart-ridges! Our lot that was buried deep in the hold of the "Albert" was dug up on Friday and we can supply you with any gauge or size of shot you may wish. "Dinna, ye hear the slogan" cartridges.

If we have any cut glass remaining after it has been picked over next week, we will give you a detailed description of the pieces. Just now we tell you that they are small and inexpensive; beautiful and recherche, fit for the Tsar's table and almost given away.
